CORAM : MR.JUSTICE A.L.DAVE

Date of decision: 06/02/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner came to be detained by virtue of an order dated 15.11.2001 passed by the District

Magistrate, Banaskantha at Palanpur in exercise of power under Section 3 of the PASA Act.

2. The grounds of detention indicate that the petitioner has been branded as a boot-legger. The detaining authority has considered two registered offences against the detenu under the Bombay Prohibition Act. The detaining authority has also considered statements of four anonymous witnesses recorded on 20.10.2001 and 22.10.2001, which were verified on 22.10.2001 and passed the order on 15.11.2001.

3. The detaining authority observed that the petitioner is required to be immediately prevented from pursuing his illegal and anti-social activities and resorting to less drastic remedy under ordinary law is not possible as immediate prevention is necessary and therefore, passed the order in exercise of powers under Section 3 of the PASA Act.

4. The petitioner seeks to challenge the said order by this petition under Article 226 of the of Constitution of India on various grounds. The learned Advocate for the petitioner submitted that the order stands vitiated only on the ground that the satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority for urgent need for detention is not genuine. To support his version, he submitted that the statement of witnesses were recorded on 20.10.2001 and 22.10.2001, whereas they were verified on 22.10.2001 and the order was passed on 15.11.2001 i.e. after 24 days. If the satisfaction for the urgent detention was genuine, the order would have been passed immediately and therefore the order may be quashed.

5. Learned AGP Mr. D.P. Joshi has opposed to this petition.

6. Having regard to the contention raised before this Court, the grounds of detention indicate that the detaining authority observed that the detenu is a boot-legger, his activity results in disturbance to public health and public order, action against him under ordinary law will have no effect on him, that it is not possible to prevent him from pursuing his activities by taking action under ordinary law and therefore, he is required to be immediately detained under PASA. This subjective satisfaction does not appear to be genuine for the reason that the detaining authority had before him the proposal atleast before 20.10.2001, he has verified the statement on 22.10.2001 and thereafter order is passed only on 15.11.2001. If the satisfaction recorded by the authority was really genuine, the action would have been taken much earlier and order would have been passed earlier. The satisfaction therefore is not genuine in law. The order of detention therefore stands vitiated. The petition deserves to be allowed only on this count.

7. The petition is therefore, allowed. Order of detention dated 15.11.2001 passed by the District Magistrate, Banaskantha at Palanpur is quashed and set aside. Detenu Juhurkhan Noormohmad Nagori be released from detention forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule made absolute. No costs. Direct service permitted.
